

Visitor Safety Training Confirmation Form

If you are not a Weill Cornell Medical College (WCMC) affiliate, please complete this form and return it to Environmental Health and Safety prior to commencing work in the facility.

Your home institution is responsible for implementing a worker protection program that is in compliance with all applicable regulations. Your employer must provide any required environmental health and safety trainings which are applicable to your work at WCMC. This may include, but is not limited to, laboratory safety, biosafety, chemical safety, hazard communication, spill prevention, occupational exposure to bloodborne pathogens, hazardous waste management, and personal protective equipment training.

By signing below, both the Visiting Researcher/Clinician and the home institution's designated Environmental Health and Safety (EHS) representative (e.g., Biosafety Official) acknowledge that appropriate biosafety, chemical safety, and laboratory safety trainings appropriate for activities at WCMC have been completed.
